Other News and Events

The Shrewsbury Passion will be taking place next Good Friday. Drama will of course feature but the message from this year's event is much more about worship, prayer and an opportunity to share the Gospel. It is also something that we all need to be involved in and this is not being set up in competition with any particular church or denomination. We all have God given gift's some will be to act, some to sew costumes, others to move stage blocks but also more importantly those with the gift of prayer - and that was something we had little or no support with this year. We also need an effective sound team much of the criticism was around people not being able to see or hear. All are welcome to come along on 25th June 2019 to have they say, to volunteer or simply to be better informed. The meeting will take place in room SGH019 at University Centre Shrewsbury at 7.30pm.

Churches Together are delighted to say that recently our MP, Daniel Kawczynski, asked if he could speak to members of Churches Together. This informal meeting will take place at 1.30pm-3pm on Friday 28th June in the United Reformed Church lecture hall. This is the room on the right, just as you enter the hall. The committee are often horrified to hear of the abuse our MPs regularly receive. The executive have asked if Daniel, apart from sharing any concerns or worries he may have, would also to speak on: What pressures are MPs under? What is it like being an MP at present? Has Daniel any prayer requests? What help is being given by the Government to Christians being persecuted abroad? How will the change of Prime Minister affect this help? We are not sure if it will be possible to ask questions during the meeting. However, time permitting, Daniel will be happy to speak to members afterwards.

Songs from the Americas - The drums are ready to break the silence, the guitars and keyboard primed and impatient to join in, the conductor and singers prepared. Next Saturday 29th June 7.30pm in the Cathedral. In aid of Samaritans. Some tickets left - from Dave Hewetson 07972-254010 or Theatre Severn / OMH 01743-281281. Or on the door.
