Institute of Christ the King During this past year, priests of the Institute of Christ the King, Sovereign Priest have travelled from New Brighton to Shrewsbury to assist with the provision of the 12.15pm Extraordinary Form Mass at St Winefride's. At the invitation of the Bishop, the Institute dedicated to celebrating Mass in the Latin Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite will make a new foundation in Shrewsbury at the end of this month. At the recent Chapter Meeting of the Institute, Canon Smith from Arkansas in the United States has been appointed to this foundation and will be joined by a seminarian of the Institute. They will be resident at St Winefride's Presbytery and the Bishop has invited Canon Smith to be part of the Cathedral Clergy Team serving the mission of the Cathedral and the Cathedral Parish.

We are indebted to Father McGuinness who from the first invitation of Bishop Noble has faithfully celebrated the Extraordinary Form Mass at Saint Winefride's during the past decade. We look forward to continuing this provision into the future with Mass on both Sundays and weekdays. We warmly welcome the Institute of Christ the King to the Cathedral Parish and pray its work and witness will flourish as part of our mission.
