CATECHESIS FOR SEPTEMBER

The Second Vatican Council: All are welcome to a series of prayer and three talks given by Fr Tony on selected themes of the Second Vatican Council (1962-65). The talks will be held in the Parish Room at the Cathedral.

Friday 14th September, Rosary 7pm, Talk 7.30pm

An introduction to the Second Vatican Council. The Second Vatican Council has been called the most important meeting in history. It was certainly the most significant Church event in the 20th Century shaping the way we live and express our faith today. In this session we explore what the Council was about, what happened and what it teaches.

Friday 21st September, Rosary 7pm, Talk 7.30pm

Who will be saved? The Second Vatican Council on Salvation

Friday 28th September, Rosary 7pm, Talk 7.30pm

What am I called to do? The Second Vatican Council and the Mission of the Laity

GENERAL NOTICES

Town Walls to Claremont Bank - The scheme commences 10 Sept, first phase is Murivance & adjoining roads and ends Nov 2018.

Olivewood carvings, crosses and figures: made by Palestinian Christian families are available to buy this weekend at Masses. They are being sold on their behalf to keep them from migrating due to lack of work and persecution in the region. According to a recent survey there are only thirty five thousand Christians left in the Holy Land. The craftsmen who make the items support families by paying for their children's schooling and helping the sick. Thank you again and your help and support which is most appreciated.

Red Mission Boxes: St Winefride's boxes are due to be opened in September, if you would like your box to be emptied please bring it along to church. The autumn edition of Mission Today is available at the back of church for subscribers. Would all box holders at Our Lady of Pity please empty their boxes and put the contents in an envelope clearly marked with your name and A.P.F. and kindly hand them into Elizabeth.
